TD Asset Management launches global and U.S. equity opportunities for institutional investors with Epoch Investment Partners

TORONTO, Oct 9, 2013 /CNW/ - TD Asset Management Inc. (TDAM), announced today the launch of a new set of global and U.S. active fundamental equity strategies for Canadian institutional investors. These funds will be sub-advised by TDAM's new affiliate, Epoch Investment Partners, Inc. (Epoch).

"Our goal is to help Canadian institutional investors expand their investment opportunities to include compelling global and U.S. equities," said Timothy Thompson, Chief Operating Officer, TDAM. "These additions to our solution set are in response to evolving client needs. Investors are seeking strategies that can help them achieve optimal risk-adjusted returns, and we believe the Epoch team can be a valuable part of the solution."

Epoch was acquired by TD Bank Group in March 2013 and is now sub-adviser to the following TDAM funds:

- TD Emerald Global Equity Shareholder Yield Pooled Fund Trust*
- TD Emerald Global Equity Choice Pooled Fund Trust
- TD Emerald U.S. All Cap Value Equity Pooled Fund Trust
- TD Emerald U.S. Large Cap Value Equity Pooled Fund Trust

*Formerly, TD Emerald Global Dividend Pooled Fund Trust. Epoch became sub-adviser for this fund on August 1, 2013.

"There is a tremendous synergy between TDAM and Epoch," said Tim Taussig, President and Chief Operating Officer, Epoch. "We have distinct capabilities, yet we share a focus on listening to our clients, carefully managing risk, and working to develop truly innovative strategies that meet the needs of investors."

Epoch is a successful asset management firm based in New York City. Founded in 2004, Epoch has 78 employees and an investment team with more than 20 years of investment management experience each, on average. As of September 30, 2013, Epoch managed approximately US$34.6 billion for clients around the world.
