

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

On Saturday, President Trump declared Wednesday, December 5, 2018 as a presidential day of mourning in honor of President George H. W. Bush

The New York Stock Exchange has announced it will be closed on December 5, and SIFMA has recommended that fixed-income cash markets are closed on December 5th.

Due to the national day of mourning no transactions between your accounts and these markets can be conducted. If you have any questions, please contact the Funds by calling 1-866-416-4031.