Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Results of Operations

The Class B units of TD Emerald Canadian Equity Index Fund (the "Fund") returned 16.2% for the six-month period ended June 30, 2019 ("Reporting Period"), versus 16.2% for the Fund's product benchmark. The Fund's product benchmark is the S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index ("S&P/TSX Composite TR Index"). Unlike the product benchmark, the Fund's return is quoted after the deduction of fees and expenses.

Market Update

Over the Reporting Period, the Canadian economy was supported by a healthy labour market; however, it experienced relatively weak annualized gross domestic product growth over the first quarter of 2019. Ongoing trade uncertainty between the U.S. and China weighed on markets and caused volatility. In response to soft growth and global trade disruptions, the Bank of Canada ("BoC") held its benchmark interest rate at 1.75% throughout the Reporting Period. Canada's unemployment rate generally fell throughout the Reporting Period, hitting its lowest level since 1976 in May, as a substantial number of jobs were added to the economy. Canada's inflation rate steadily increased, moving closely with the price of oil, and rose towards the end of the Reporting Period as a result of higher food prices.

The Canadian equity market rose over the Reporting Period, with all 11 sectors posting gains. Information technology, health care and utilities were the strongest-performing sectors, while communication services, energy and consumer staples were the weakest-performing sectors.

The information technology sector benefited from strong consumer and business spending on technology. Amid market volatility, the defensive health care and utilities sectors advanced. Defensive sectors are typically less affected by changes in the economy. The health care sector moved higher largely in response to increased optimism towards cannabis stocks, which drove the performance of the pharmaceuticals sub-sector. The utilities sector benefited from strong financial results and robust demand for its products and services.

Key Contributors/Detractors

The Fund continued to be managed with the objective of seeking to track the performance of its product benchmark. The Fund's returns are influenced by the same factors that affect the Canadian equity market.

Recent Developments

Looking ahead, the Portfolio Adviser continues to monitor a variety of macroeconomic factors that could impact financial markets. Central banks have become less optimistic about the global economy. The Portfolio Adviser expects the BoC and the U.S. Federal Reserve Board to reduce interest rates from current levels given a slowing global economy and persistent trade frictions. In the Portfolio Adviser's view, Brexit uncertainty and weak industrial production could hamper economic growth in Europe, which may prompt the European Central Bank to cut interest rates as well. The Portfolio Adviser expects a low and potentially declining interest rate environment in the coming year.

In the Portfolio Adviser's view, financial markets may experience periods of volatility as a slowing global economy and trade tensions between the U.S. and China cause uncertainty for investors. While corporate fundamentals, valuations and low interest rates tend to support equity prices, the Portfolio Adviser anticipates that political and economic risks could pose a challenge to financial markets over the coming year.

Brokerage Arrangements (000s):

From time to time, the Fund may enter into portfolio securities transactions with Related Dealers who may earn commissions or spreads provided that such trades are made on terms and conditions that are comparable to non-affiliated brokerages. During the Reporting Period, the Fund paid commissions to related parties amounting to $73 or 37.82% of total commissions paid by the Fund for portfolio transactions in total.

<sup>1</sup> This information is derived from the Fund's interim and audited annual financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards. The Fund measures fair value of its investments based on close market prices, where the close market price falls within the bid-ask spread or based on quotations from recognized dealers. As such, the Fund's accounting policies for measuring the fair value of investments in the financial statements are substantively consistent with those used in measuring the net asset value ("NAV") for transactions with unitholders.

<sup>2</sup> Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial periods. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of the net assets per unit.

<sup>2</sup> Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses (excluding distributions, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) net of any waivers or absorptions for the stated period, including the Fund's proportionate share of the MER, if any, of the underlying fund(s) in which the Fund has invested in, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average NAV during the period. Any waivers or absorptions may be discontinued at any time by TDAM at its discretion without notice.

<sup>3</sup> The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average NAV during the stated period. Where a Fund invests in units of any underlying fund, the TER presented for the Fund includes the portion of TERs, if available, of the underlying fund(s) attributable to this investment.

<sup>4</sup> The Fund's portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio adviser manages its investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the stated period. The higher a fund's PTR, the greater the trading costs payable, directly or indirectly, by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the fiscal year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund's Class B units do not pay a management fee to TDAM. Instead, such fees are negotiated separately and paid directly by unitholders.

Past Performance

The following chart shows how the Fund has performed in the past, and can help you understand the risks of investing in the Fund. These returns include the reinvestment of all distributions and would be lower if an investor did not reinvest distributions. They do not include deduction of sales, switch, redemption, or other optional charges (which dealers may charge) or income taxes payable, and these returns would be lower if they did. The Fund's past performance does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Year-by-year returns

The bar chart shows how the Fund's performance has varied from year to year for each of the years shown. It shows in percentage terms how an investment made on January 1 would have increased or decreased by December 31 for each year and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2019.

For the 12 months ended Dec. 31 and six-month period ended June 30, 2019
